

8th Annual

Winter Gardening Workshops ~ 2019

by the Brunswick-Topsham Land Trust's
Tom Settemire Community Garden

Sundays 2:00-3:30 pm

January 13

INDOOR GARDENING FOR YEAR-ROUND SALAD GREENS

Caroline Eliot, former Associate Director of BTLT

Learn a simple method for raising salad greens year-round, without grow lights, greenhouses, or fancy equipment. You'll learn how to grow nutrient-dense, soil-sprouted greens in less than ten days, even in January!

January 27

GARDENING WITHOUT ACHES AND PAINS

Ellen Gibson, Maine AgrAbility

From repetitive work to arthritis and aging, gardening can be hard on your body. This presentation will explain the changes you can make in your routine to help you garden while avoiding joint, muscle and back pain.

February 10

PLANT PROPAGATION FROM SEEDS TO CUTTINGS

Stan Wakely, Urban Garden Center

Learn about seed starting from Stan Wakely, the manager of the Urban Garden Center in Topsham. He'll touch on the various ways to propagate plants, from grafting apple trees to dividing hostas.

February 24

HANDS-ON PRUNING

Tim Vail, Vail's Tree Service

With over 40 years of pruning experience, Tim will explain the importance of allowing sunlight to penetrate the tree and will provide a hands-on workshop.

March 10 ~ Fundraiser

WILD WEATHER & GARDENING

GLEN KOEHLER

ASSOCIATE SCIENTIST SPECIALIZING IN INTEGRATED PEST MANAGEMENT
COOPERATIVE EXTENSION OF THE UNIVERSITY OF MAINE

~ A TSCG FUNDRAISER: $10 ~

Have you noticed changes in weather patterns and our sometimes wild weather? We now expect more extreme weather, a longer growing season, and changes in pest populations at different times. Learn more about what lies ahead and how to manage new gardening challenges as our weather changes.

March 24

HOME COMPOSTING

Don Morrison, Wayside Food Programs

Learn practical tools, techniques, troubleshooting, and suggestions to simplify the composting process at home, making it accessible and affordable for anyone, especially anyone previously intimidated by the process.

~ All events are $5 suggested donation, except March 10 is a $10 ticket ~

At St. Paul's Episcopal Church: corner of Pleasant & Union Streets, Brunswick

For more detailed descriptions of all the events in this series, please visit www.btl.org/events